

Sox Land Second Game of Series in Nighttime Battle---Golf and Racing

BERT'S ERROR LOSES BATTLE

Shotton's Miscue Causes the Nationals' Defeat in Overtime Game.

A buttered fingered act, staged by Bert Shotton in the fourth inning, cost the Sox a victory in the second game of the series, at the Florida Stadium after eleven innings of battling by a 2 to 1 count. Due to Shotton's miscue in the fourth both clubs were forced to work overtime to reach the decision, and it was from the bat of Johnny Collins that the pitcher was driven that sent the champions the two winning tallies.

Harper went like a house on fire, all the way to the eleventh, when Collins belted a home run, which was the final blow. The Nationals got Harper away to a flying start in the opening frame, when they bunched four hits for two tallies of the offerings of Joe Benz. Lavan Danforth was called upon to finish the contest.

Although the Nationals picked a way at Danforth's delivery they only threatened on two occasions, but the necessary swat was not forthcoming. Harper set the White Sox crowd down with six hits. Eddie Collins obtained the first one after two were out in the first frame. Gandil doubled with two down in the sixth but died at the midway station. Ray Schalk singled with two retired in the tenth but Danforth forced him at second.

Bert Shotton's present to the White Sox came in the fourth inning. Eddie Collins drew a base on balls. Gandil grounded to Foster but Foster's relay to Morgan was slightly delayed and both runners were safe. John Collins moved them up a peg by a neat sacrifice, and both runners rushed over the pen when McMurphy then lifted a fly to right field under which Bert Shotton camped, but which he booted in an amateur fashion.

Lehold opened the way for the Sox's two tallies in the eleventh by a single to right field. Shellenback moved him up a peg, and Eddie Collins drew a base on balls. Danforth was called upon to finish the contest. Harper went like a house on fire, all the way to the eleventh, when Collins belted a home run, which was the final blow.

Nationals' next opportunity to win the game came in the ninth after Danforth and Morgan had been turned. Foster singled to left and stole second, but Alnath was free transportation. Harry Harper failed to answer the appeal of local fans in this pinch. The score:

INTER-CAMP MATCHES WILL BE FEATURE

Inter-camp and intercompany contests will be the feature of the United States meet, to be held by the District War Camp Community Service at Central High School stadium, June 1. A championship of the war camps, which embraced the District of Columbia, parts of Maryland and Virginia, and includes Camp Meade, Meigs, American University, Lee, Washington Barracks, Quantico and Belvoir will be one of the notable events of the meet.

These intercamp contests will be held in all the dashes and jumps, with points counting for the different camps in any other track meet. O. W. Barnes, of the New York branch of the War Camp Community Service, is now in Washington assisting in the completion of plans for the meet. Mr. Barnes has recently visited many of the camps in the North, and believes that the entry list for the coming meet will even exceed the expectations of officials of the War Camp Service.

The men in the camps, according to Mr. Barnes, are eager for any sort of competition games in which they will travel away from their own camp and are eager to compete in the meet.

Five Out-of-Town Golfers Qualify for First Flight

Norbert Dempsey Is Low Medalist in Opening Day's Play.

Five out-of-town and eleven local golfers qualified in the first round of the annual Spring Invitational tournament of the Chevy Chase Club in the eighteen-hole qualification round which was played yesterday. Columbia, with seven, including the winners of both the gross and net score prizes, lead the local clubs. Herbert Dempsey, winner of last year's Middle Atlantic patriotic tournament, was low medalist, with 87 and 87, for a total of 174.

Walter R. Tuckerman, of the home club, and Robert Finkelman, of Columbia, were second and third, respectively, with 88 and 88, for a total of 176. The handicapping, usually an all-day event played on the closing day, was held in conjunction with the qualifying round, and was won by Gardner P. Crowder, of Columbia, who had a gross 87, with 18 off, for a net 69.

There was a pretty fight for the last place in the first flight between George H. Chasmar, of Columbia, J. Martin Scranage, of Bannockburn, and Allan Lord, of Chevy Chase, and John LaCombe, also of the host organization, the latter winning out in the play-off on the second hole. Lord and Scranage were eliminated on the first hole and it looked very much as if Chasmar would get first-right honors when he laid his second on the green on the second with a sarabha twenty-five yards away on his. The latter made a beautiful third, however, going down in 4, Chasmar overplaying his third and missing coming back.

For some unaccountable reason, the scores were much higher than usual, one 88 getting in the first flight while there were a number of 90's in the fourth.

The pairings for today showing qualification scores and time of starting are as follows: FIRST SIXTEEN.

HAIRY LIP WON BY DAMROSCH

Jockey Lyke Puts Winner Over in Great Style at Pimlico Track.

Damrosch, capably handled by Jockey Lyke, won the Stafford Handicap from Crank after an exciting stretch run at Pimlico yesterday. Crank went on top at the break and remained in that position until the back stretch, when Lyke made his move and brought his mount up on the outside. Getting into the stretch Lyke lost some ground when he took Damrosch wide at the turn, but after once getting straightened out, Damrosch responded to the beating and drew away from Crank in the last furlong.

The Claiborne Memorial Cup, a four and one-half furlong sprint for two-year-olds, was captured by Pinard. Getting away from the barrier in the lead Pinard was urged on to a safe distance and waded off the rush of Esquimaux at the finish. Esquimaux broke slowly but soon found his racing legs and was going strong at the end, but could not catch Pinard. See First race for details.

Little Horn forced the pace for the first mile and a half, but soon tired and dropped back. At the last fence Willie Allen made his move and took the lead, and held it for the entire distance although he was hard pressed by Coral, who tired in the last sixteenth, and finished third.

Leading all the way from the start, Fencer had things his way in the sixth race, and won as his rider pleased. In the stretch Jockey Lyke drew his whip on irregular, and the horse responded gamely, but could not overcome Fencer's lead.

After repeated efforts, Golden Glow, at last succeeded in getting down in front, when he captured the second race in handy fashion. Getting off at the break, Golden Glow took the lead, and held it for the entire distance although he was hard pressed by Coral, who tired in the last sixteenth, and finished third.

Tommy was scored in the opener, when after getting straightened out in the stretch showed a lot of speed, and beat Milida, who is owned by Bert Williams, the comedian, easily. George W. Loft's, Sweetest, ran third.

FIRST RACE—Four and one-half furlongs: Tommy, 1st (Loft), 1:10, 5.00, 4.00; Milida, 2nd (Walt), 1:12, 4.00, 3.00; Sweetest, 3rd (Loft), 1:14, 3.00, 2.00. SECOND RACE—Three furlongs: mile and a sixteenth: Golden Glow, 1st (Kummer), 1:00, 5.00, 4.00; Willie Allen, 2nd (Coral), 1:02, 4.00, 3.00; Coral, 3rd (Morgan), 1:04, 3.00, 2.00. THIRD RACE—The Chickens Steeplechase Handicap: 4-year-olds and up; 2 miles: Fencer, 1st (Allen), 2:20, 5.00, 4.00; Willie Allen, 2nd (Coral), 2:22, 4.00, 3.00; Coral, 3rd (Morgan), 2:24, 3.00, 2.00. FOURTH RACE—Three furlongs: mile and a sixteenth: Golden Glow, 1st (Kummer), 1:00, 5.00, 4.00; Willie Allen, 2nd (Coral), 1:02, 4.00, 3.00; Coral, 3rd (Morgan), 1:04, 3.00, 2.00. FIFTH RACE—The Chickens Steeplechase Handicap: 4-year-olds and up; 2 miles: Fencer, 1st (Allen), 2:20, 5.00, 4.00; Willie Allen, 2nd (Coral), 2:22, 4.00, 3.00; Coral, 3rd (Morgan), 2:24, 3.00
